Like the twilight in the road up ahead

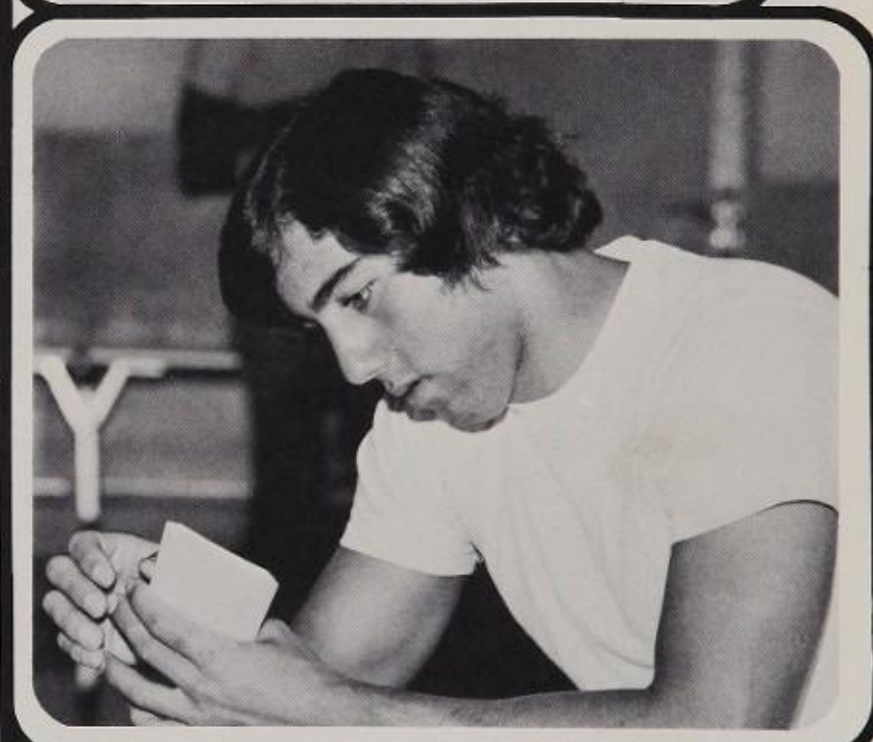
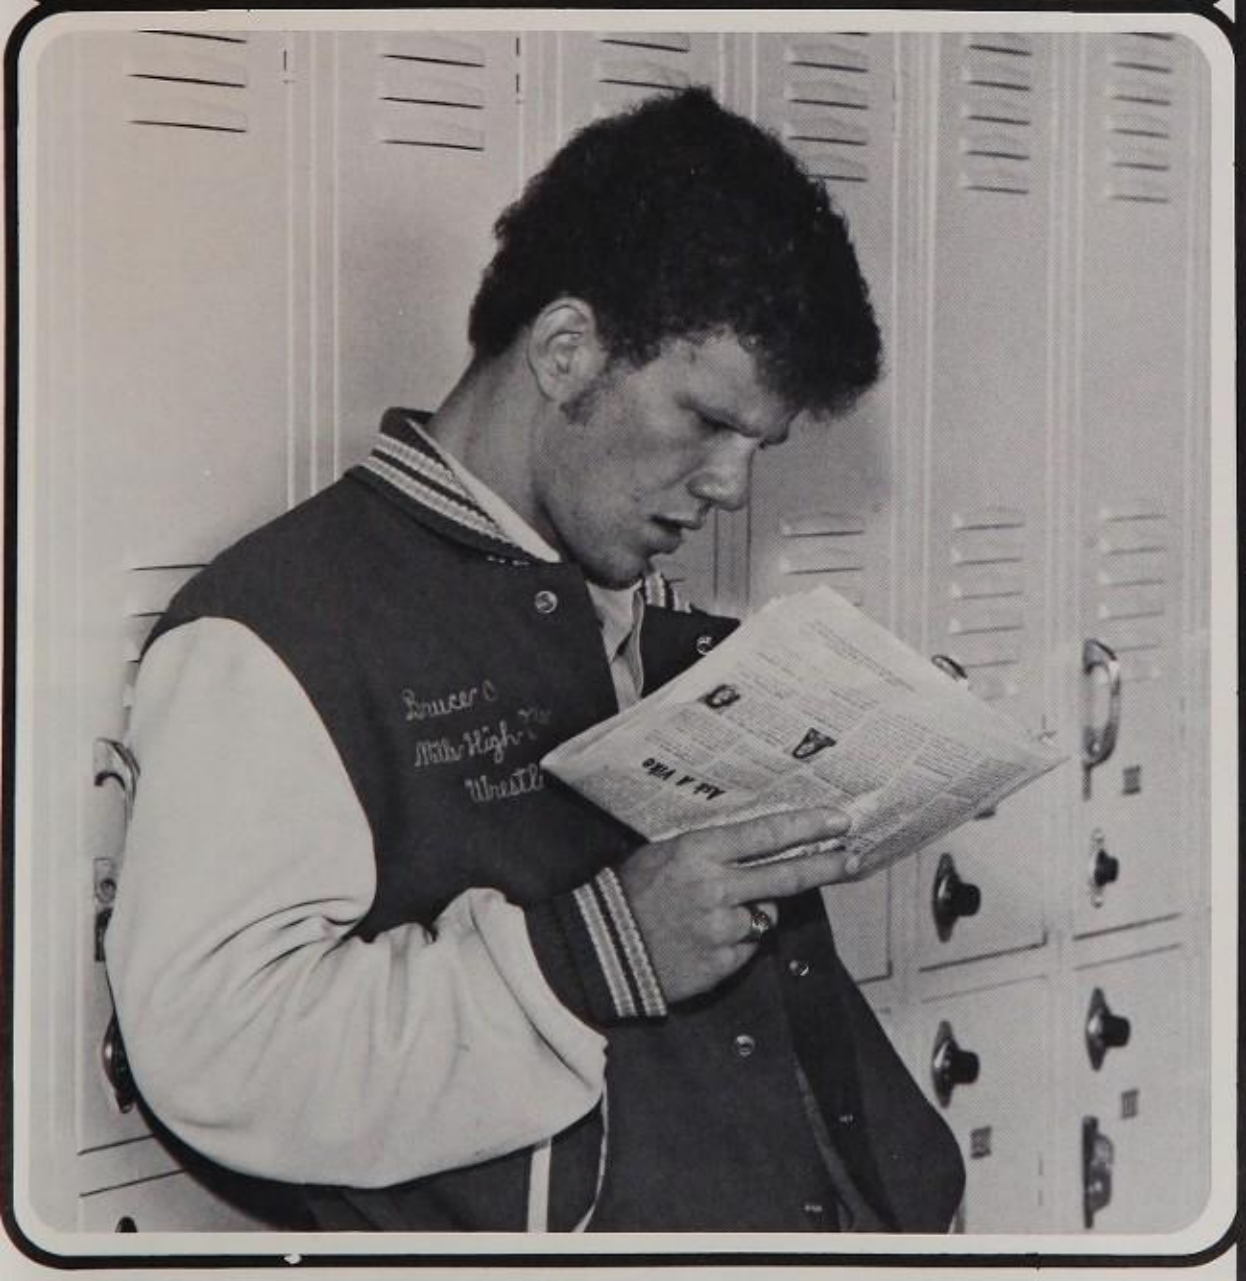
They don't see just where we're goin'

And all the secrets
in the Universe





Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go

Like Columbus in the olden days
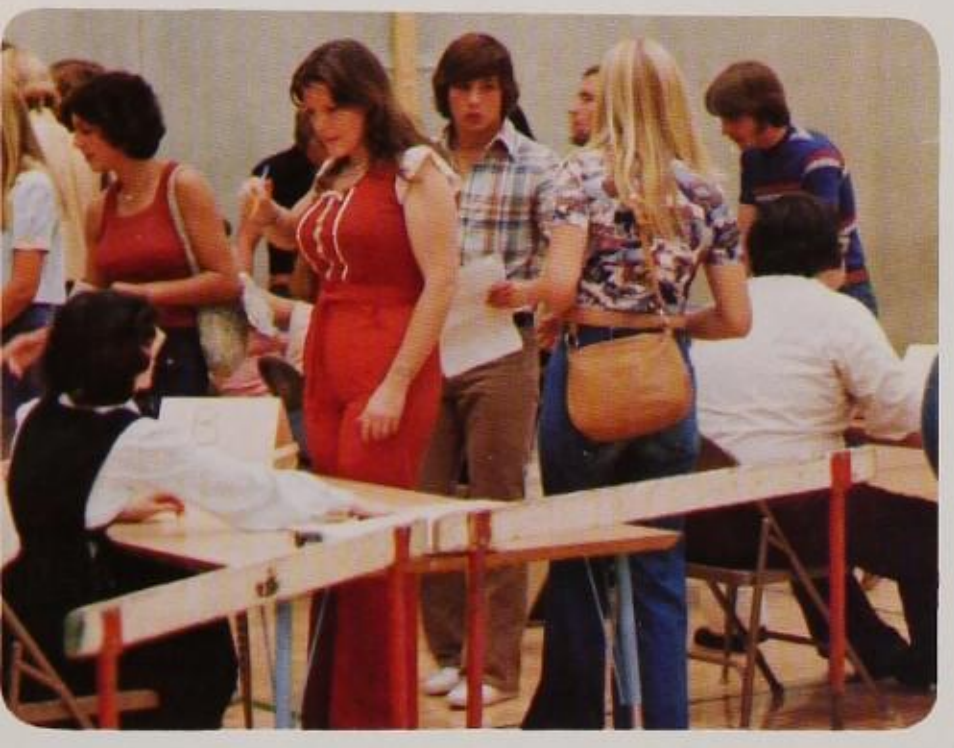
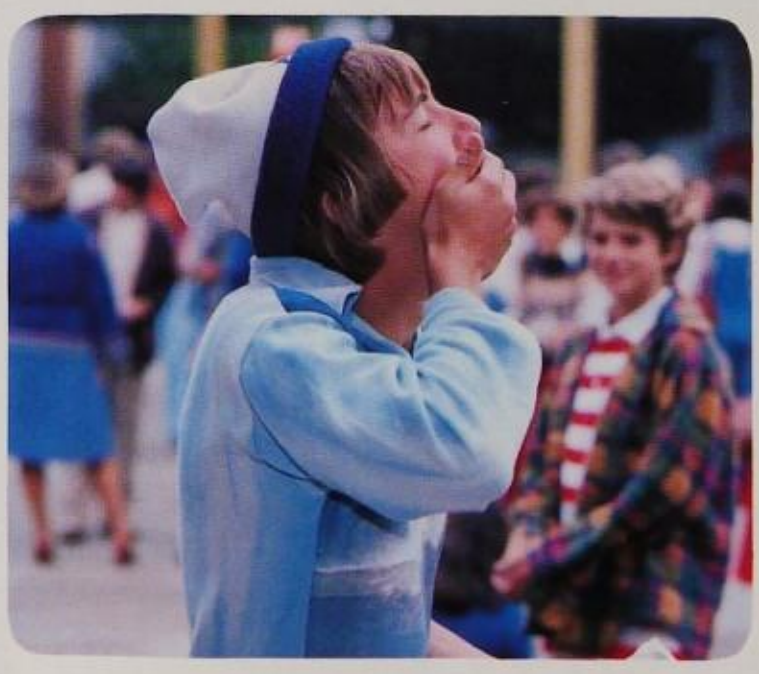
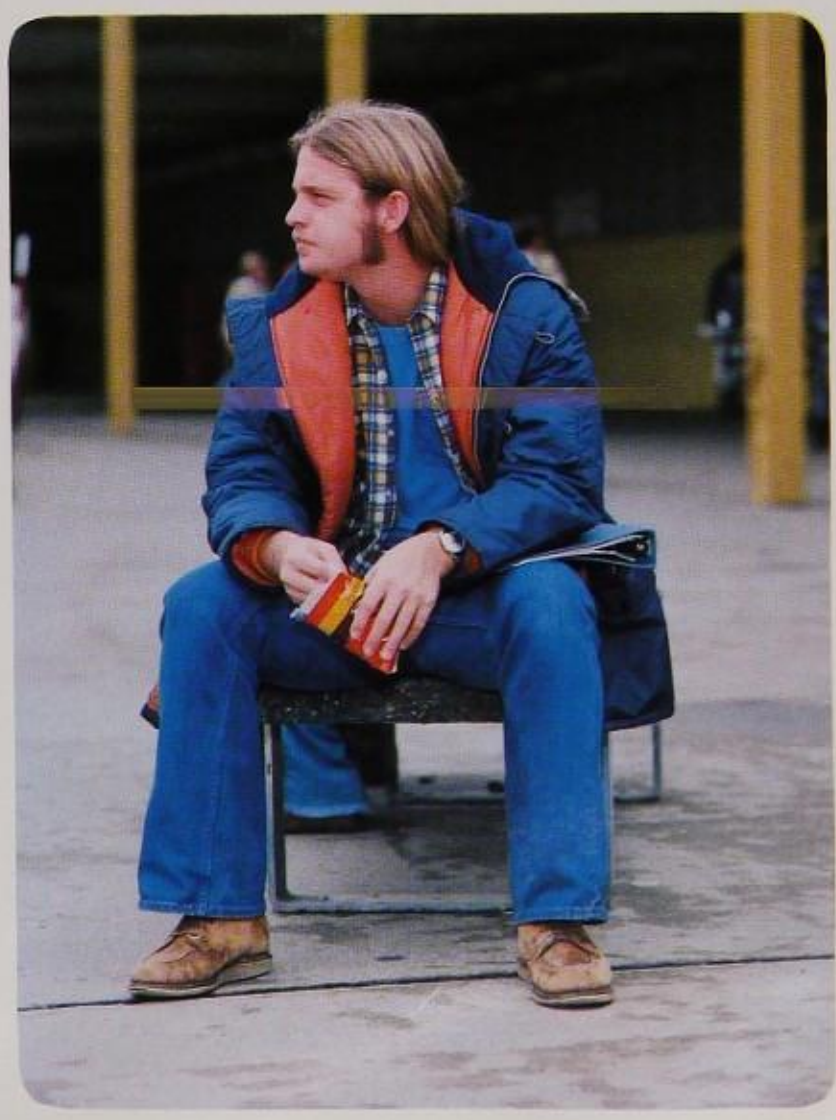
We must gather
all our courage



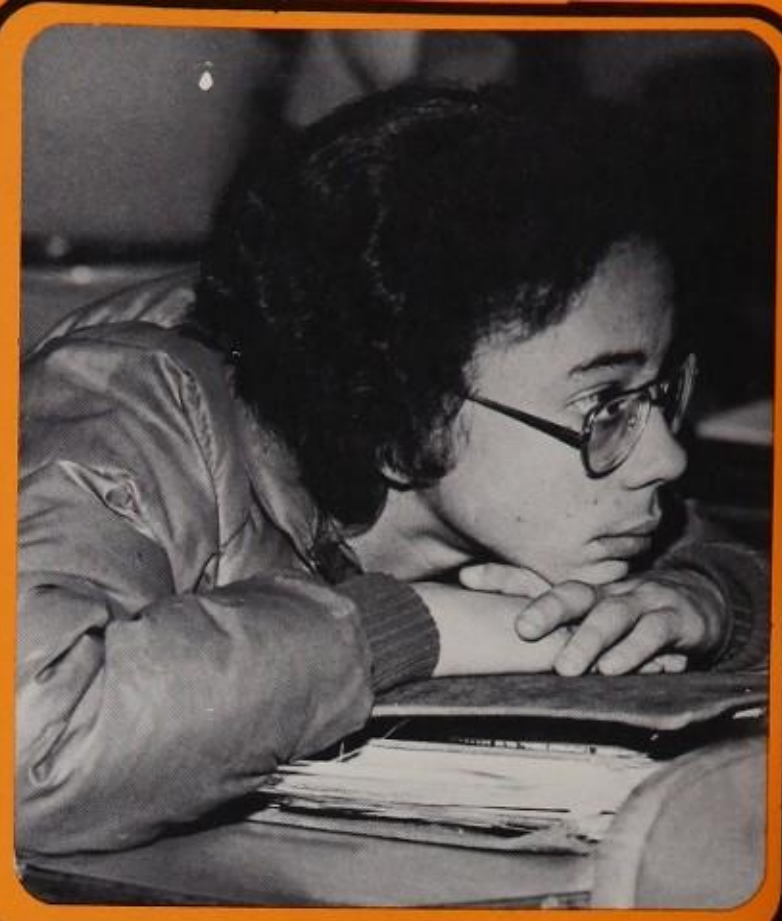


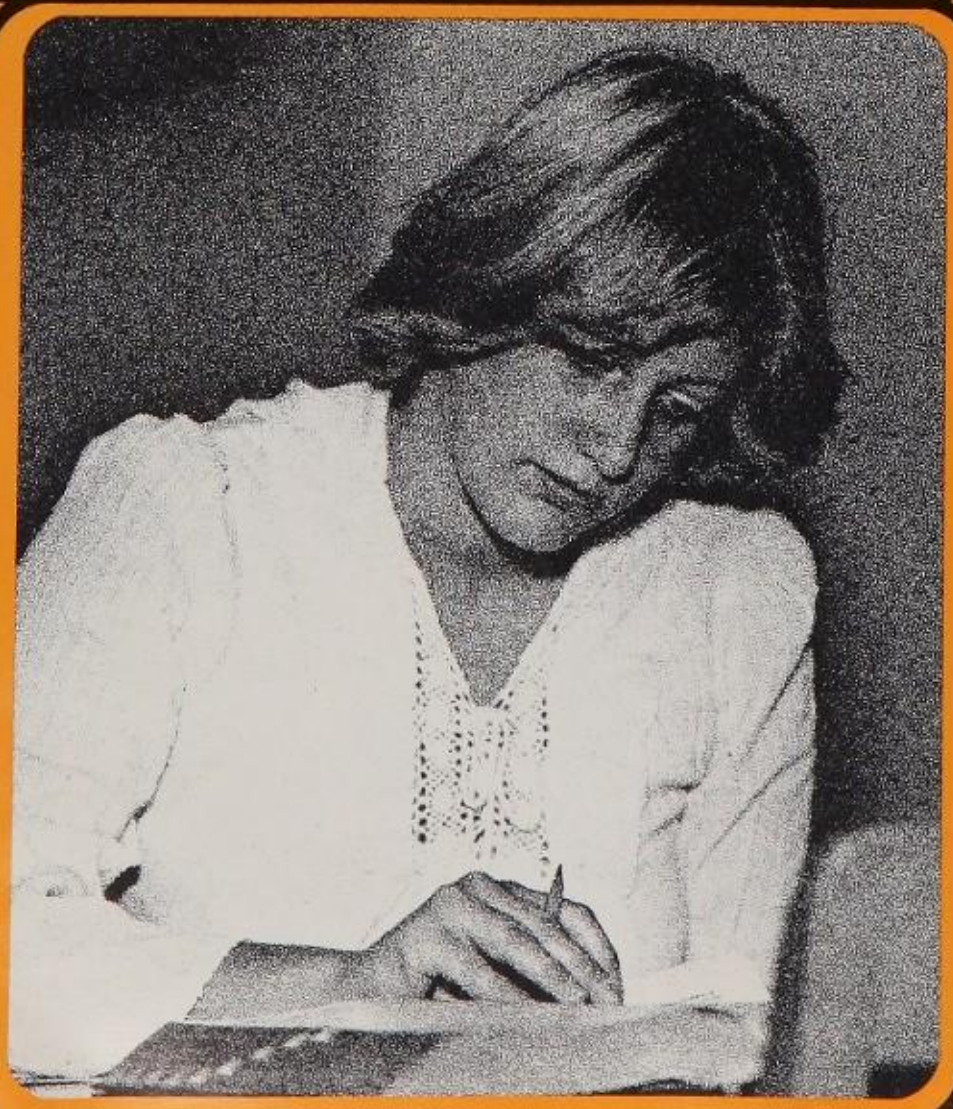
Break
Sacred
Hear

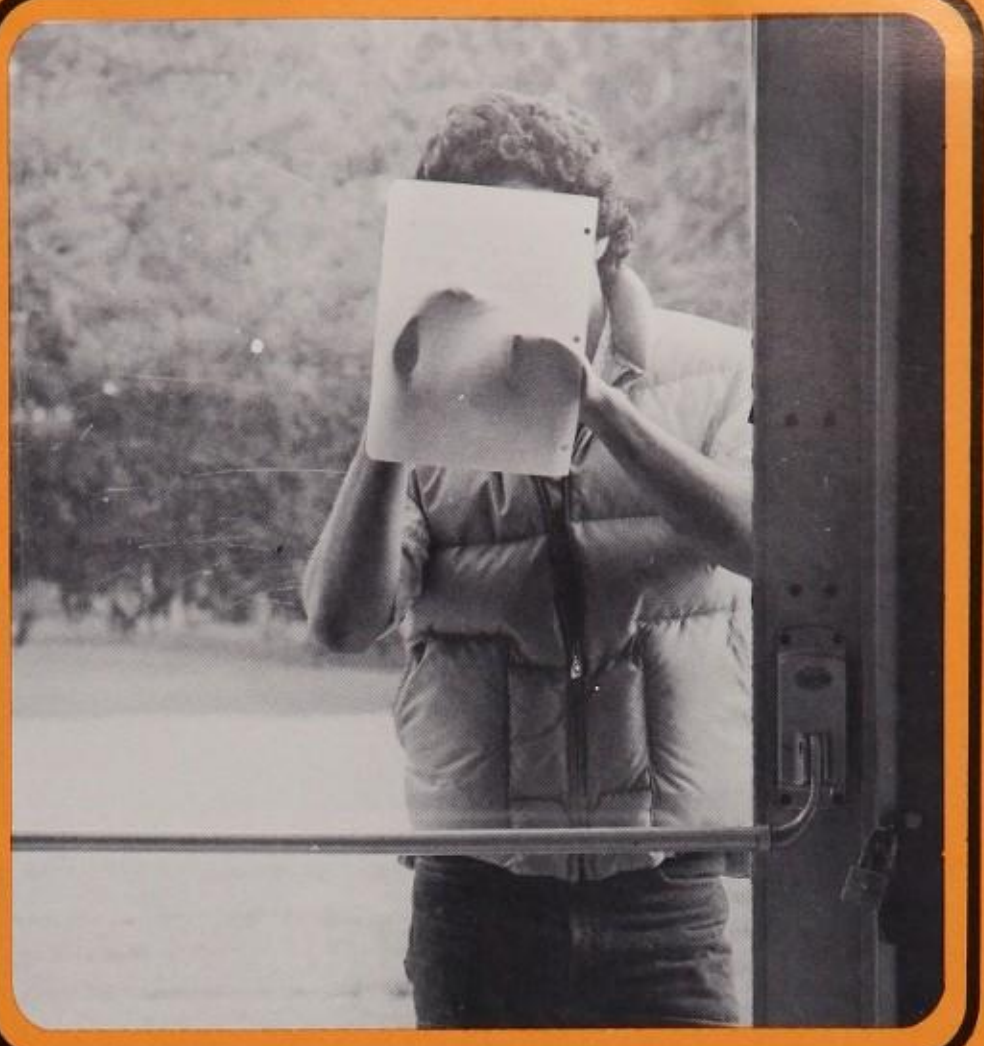
phone
phone

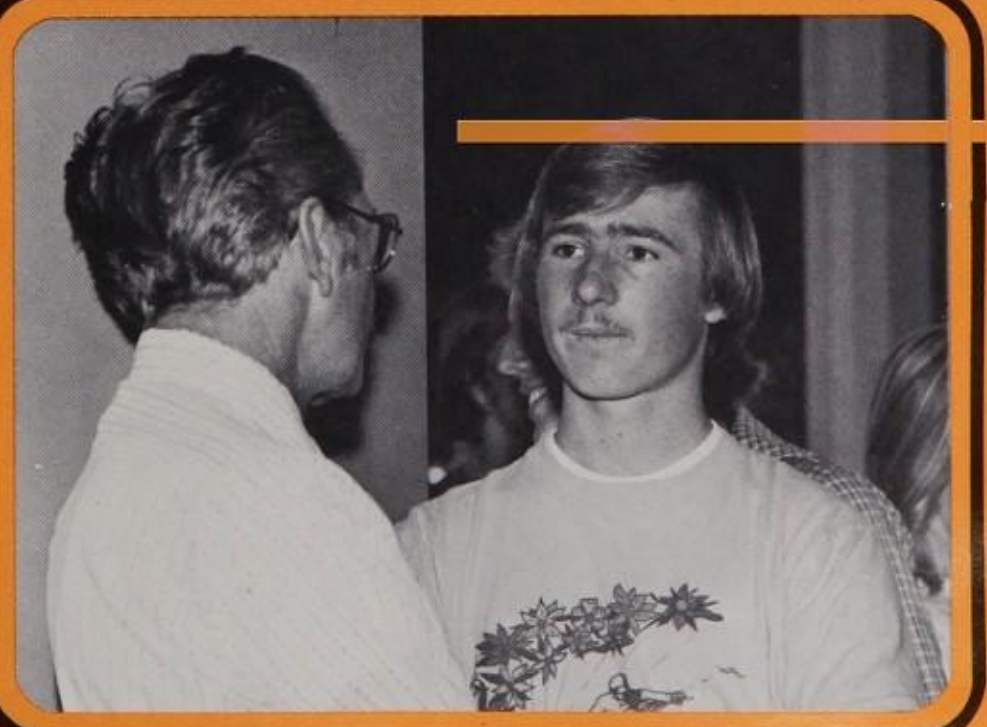


Sail our ship out on the open sea . . .

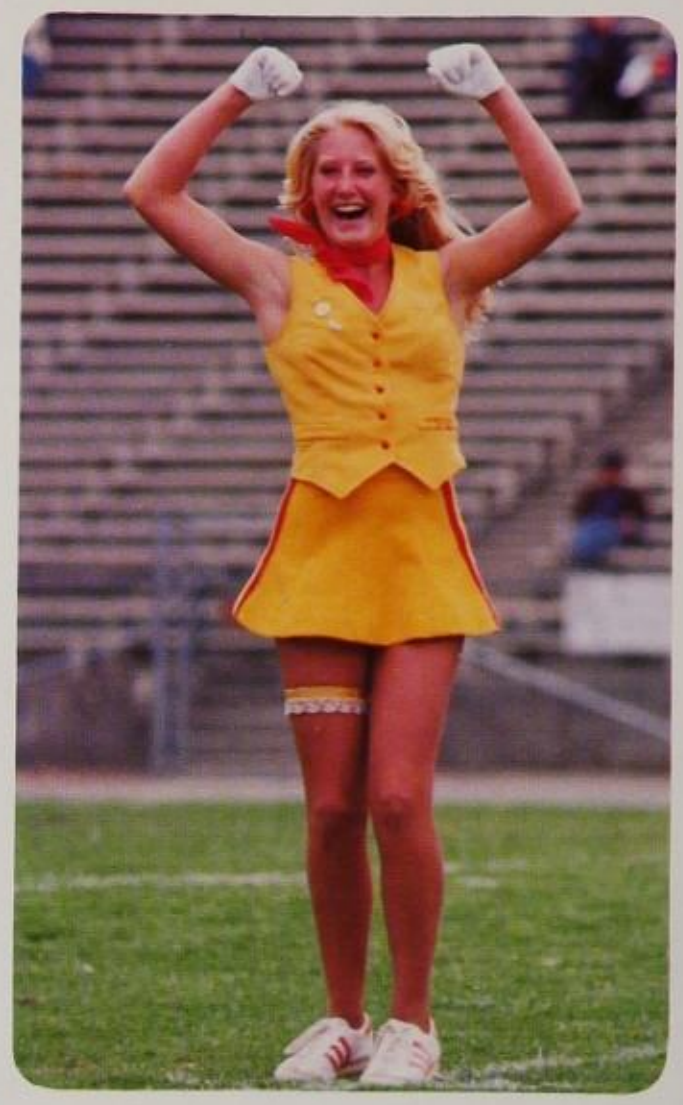








Cast away our fears and all the years



So—I wanna laugh
while the laughin' is easy

I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile

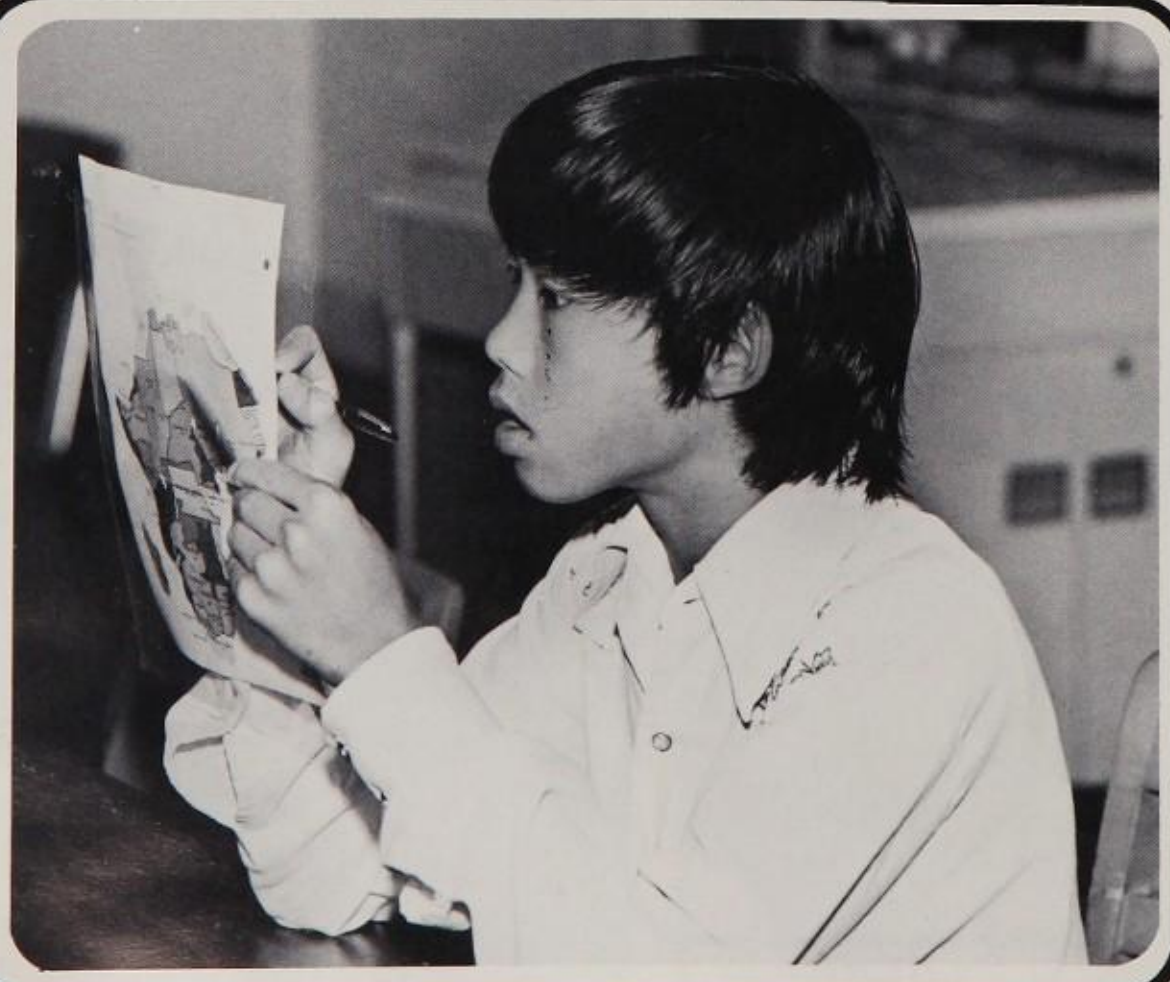
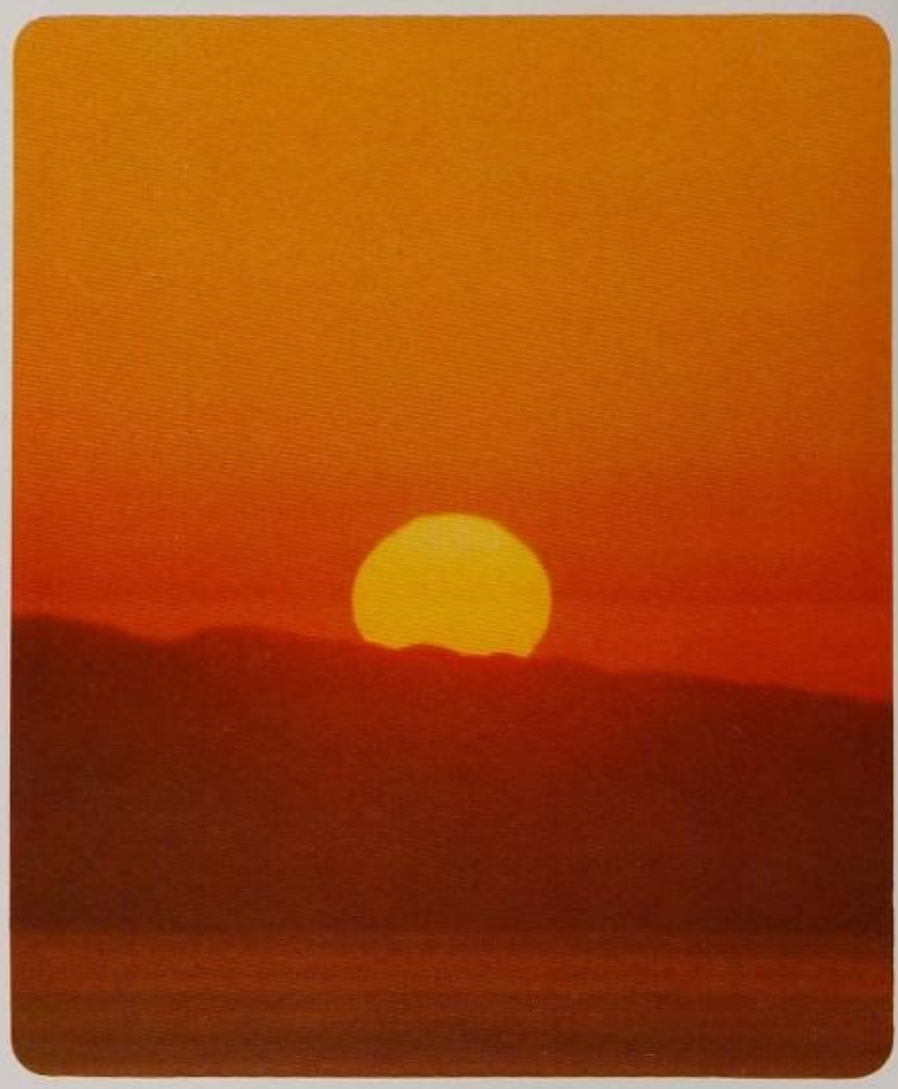
I may never pass this way again



That's why I want to spend it with you, 'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend



We may never pass this way again

Life unfolds as a story--each year a chapter, each day a page. The human mind is a mirror that reflects the good and the bad that come to us during each day. It seems that it is only those reflections that have been good and enjoyed that are called upon in memory and many times we revisit through the magic of memory those wonderful experiences that life has brought to us. Many of these experiences have been graphically illustrated and are bound in this beautiful book. I hope that through your lifetime when you reach back to retrieve some of the pleasurable moments we had at Mills you can go to this book and once again relive the magic of those moments.

How fortunate that today is today, not tomorrow--that you can still reach out and touch, see, hear and visit with those people who will soon be memories. Take advantage of these moments while they are here, for soon they will be a page in a book.

PACIFICA

Mr. Dick George from the American Yearbook Co. whose guidance at every step of production eased the way.
Mr. Eldon Tanner, the "man at the plant," who, with Barbara Phillips, gave us crucial long-distance help.
Keith Coleman Studios--particularly Jeff Rowe and Rob Bueltman--for producing our Senior Portraits, and for giving many, many hours of help on team photos, candids and special action pictures. Without this help this yearbook would have been a much more burdensome undertaking.
The Boosters Club for their generous support of the Yearbook.
The P.E. coaches whose cooperation made the job much easier.
Mr. Dick Sarro for the use of many of his photos.
Mr. Don Thoreson for obtaining press passes for our photographers.
The teachers and administration for our interruptions of classes with "urgent" summons and the like.
The Custodians for their kindness and time.
Our advertisers for their support of this yearbook.
Mr. George Criswell and Mrs. Ruth Witte, our advisors, for their time, patience, help, and support.
